

The future of regulation: Evidence Based Regulation

EPRA Workshop: Evidence Based Regulation, 24 November 2021

Krisztina Rozgonyi, University of Vienna

Complexity

– technological, social, political

- a. “Breaking down” processes of communication
- b. Make it understandable
- c. Locate points with public interest
- d. Scrutinize
- e. Monitor
- f. Intervene/regulate IF necessary

The future of content regulation in a triangular shape: emerging regulatory functions

Legal dimensions

1. Jurisdiction and applicable standards (FoE)
2. “Duty to explanation” frameworks – Data Transparency
3. Common and shared monitoring tools

Policy aspects

1. New regulatory standards
2. Societal impact assessment – the role of the USER

Governance: co-regulatory/ cross-sectoral/ cross-jurisdictional

- a. The role of regulatory networks: ERGA and EPRA
- b. Revision of institutional mandates

(Re)focusing on the user in the triangular shape of future regulation

Research and Policy Partnership – EPRA & University of Vienna

Youth Engagement / Safety (D, B)
Dis/Misinformation (L, F, B, W, H, R)
AI-driven Processes (F, L)
Advertising and Media (M)
Hate Speech (H)

facilitating evidence-based regulation

