

ERGA/EMIL (EPRA) Joint Event

Agenda

4 November 2022 // 11.00-12.30 CET

Thematic event: Trust and News: (how) does News and Information Literacy work?

Linking news and journalism to tackling disinformation and building trust

WebEx access link

1. Welcome (10 min)

(11.00 CET)

Welcome & introduction to the event, Maria Donde, EPRA Senior Vice-Chair & EMIL coordinator

2. News and information literacy and trust: presentations & discussion (70 min)

(11.10 CET)

Setting the scene: a keynote presentation

How Disinformation Reshaped the Relationship between Journalism and Media and Information Literacy

Divina Frau-Meigs, Professor of media and information and communications technology sociology at the Université Sorbonne Nouvelle, France

Case-studies:

Thomson Reuters Foundation: for a systemic change

Heba Kandil, Senior Manager - Media Initiatives

Newswise: news and information literacy in schools and communities

Elli Narewska, Head of primary Education at the Guardian Foundation – Newswise & News Literacy Network, UK

The "KWB Halloween horror tour": news and information literacy for families

Anja Van Boven, Coordinator at KWB, an association for adults and families in Flanders, Belgium

Q&A and discussion with the audience:

Open discussion with participants

3. Conclusions (10 min)

(12.20 CET)

Conclusions & closing of the event, Maria Donde, EPRA Senior Vice-Chair & EMIL coordinator